

PreferredPartner

WebSphere Application Server Assessment

The intent of this assessment is to evaluate your existing WebSphere environment, and review and provide skills transfer on upgrade installations, configuration, operations, monitoring, fault-tolerance, and capacity planning topics that are important to any enterprise trying to maximize the business value from their WebSphere investment.

Assessment

- Assessment of your WebSphere server and network environment
- Recommendations around available upgrades/patches to your WebSphere software on your servers
- High level collection of your WebSphere Application Server requirements
- Analysis of your WebSphere Application Server requirements and development of a high-level strategy to meet those requirements

Recommendations

- Architecture and design
- Coding techniques and WebSphere Application Server architecture strategies for application development
- Bottlenecks and other performance problems
- Monitoring and management strategy
- Reliability and scalability

Recommendations report

will include:

- Executive summary
- Current environment and Analysis of findings
- High-level WebSphere Application Server design
- Recommended next actions to achieve WAS service level requirements

Benefits

- Existing WebSphere environment is operating as effectively as possible
- Improved performance and reliability from WebSphere environment
- Help with capacity planning
- Help with error detection
- Strategies and exception handling

About us:

PreferredPartner is a Premier IBM Business Partner, focused exclusively on IBM Software. We have technical resources nationwide and are IBM's largest

For more information, please contact:

Craig Humphreys
PreferredPartner
866-885-3249 x904
craig.humphreys@preferredpartner.com

